3:15pm Accelerating Corporate Innovation in the Midst of a Pandemic
Innovation is high on the agenda of Asian companies – There are over 400 unicorns worldwide – 140 of them are in Asia Pacific. Beyond the young, entrepreneurial companies, the region continues to inspire global leaders to step outside of their comfort zone and use innovation in new ways to expand their portfolio of businesses. In the face of a global pandemic, how can you accelerate corporate innovation and prepare for the new normal?
